Reports

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

BISHOP SMITH AND BRETHREN:

This is the fifth annual report which has been presented by me to the Kentucky Conference. However, this report is the first of its kind to be presented by any superintendent to this body. In accordance with the action taken at last Conference, I am presenting this as a composite report for the four districts. It is a matter of no little concern to make report for a single district, and to make this report causes me to advance with fear and trembling. For this task I have been selected by my worthy colleagues, and thus I pray your indulgence.

The word of the moment is "Welcome" to our good Bishop H. Lester Smith. We are glad indeed to have his presence at this session of our Conference. We come together in troublesome times and covet his wisdom and godly counsel. While due acknowledgment has been made of the entrance into this body of those from the "German Conference," we wish to welcome them also. We covet their godly fellowship and shall try in every way to make them know that we appreciate their presence.

We offer a word of "Welcome" to the members of the Lay Conference now in session. To you worthy laymen of this conference session we are looking with high hope. May your presence and counsel mean much here as it does in your several fields of service. And to our brethren pastors of the districts, we superintendents offer our appreciation for your fine loyalty and co-operation in these trying times. Certainly such days have not been upon the Church in years past. We pray that the future will unveil to us brighter things. Surely we have had our hours of struggle and waited at altars of sacrifice. It is with Christ we have chosen this way, thus we say, "Where He leads me I will follow."

Having some convictions concerning a report of this kind for our Conference, I venture to state them. I trust that information, illumination, and inspiration may be given to those who hear.

Looking at the Past

In the Minutes of 1894 the records show that we had 20,940 members on roll, with 2,304 probationers. Churches and parsonages were listed at $562,530. There were six districts with $3,809 as the support given them by the churches. We had at that time 93 charges with salaries totaling $36,068.

In 1922, or just twenty-eight years later, these items report: Full members, 22,114; probationers, 623; church and parsonage values are at $1,533,385. There were four districts with support from the churches stated at $7,761. We had 113 charges with total salaries at $116,027.

In the year 1932, which period I have covered with a more specific survey, the membership lists at 21,915, with 1,144 on the probationary list. Church and parsonage values are set at $1,777,600. We show four districts with salaries from the churches at $9,602. We had 104 charges with total salaries at $116,131.

Therefore from 1922-1932 we lost 199 members, but had a gain in probationers of 561. Property increased in ten years $44,215. The salary paid to pastors increased $104, while the salary to superintendents increased $1,841. From 1894-1932, a period of thirty-eight years, we gained only 975 full members and lost 1,160 from the probationary list. While we show in this same period a gain of $1,215,070 in church and parsonage values, a gain of $5,793 in superintendents' salaries, with $80,062 in salaries of pastors, we actually have 185 less members to account for.

With the above in mind certain deductions are forthcoming. Thirty-eight years ago we had more preaching points than we have to-day. We had no large city membership and our work was in the rural places. There is every reason to rejoice in our increased financial wealth, but is there not also some call for warning? When the tiller of the soil is allowed to forget God the altars of the centers of trade will have no glow. Many fields have been deserted by us or left to others to serve. There is evidence that we have invested large sums of money at certain points where the element of success is very small. Our missionary giving with few exceptions is very low. However, we have received through the co-operation of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension for the ten year period, 1922-1932, $240,117 on building and maintenance programs.

Our Conference offers but few pastorates with adequate support for a trained leadership. We are paying below a living wage for many workers. This condition makes for unrest and is the cause for much shifting on the part of ministers. From 1922-32 the average length for all pastors serving in this Conference stands at 1.81 years, plus.

We urge the co-operation of ministers and laymen to remedy the above condition. It is evident that a lengthening of pastorates is essential to success. This can be borne out by facts at hand. The writer has such information in his possession for those who are interested.

The Present Year

David C. Johnson, of Ashland District, writes:

Nothing spectacular is happening with us. We are pulling along and hope to have a fair showing at Conference. Our final reports will reveal something of what the men on our district have been doing through this trying year. A $640 increase in salary schedules for 1933-34 is reported.

Edward P. Hall, of Covington District, writes:

"I am enclosing reports from all but four of my men. I don't know that I have any comment to make on the reports and the work of the year other than to say they are better than I had feared they might be. These nineteen reports show general increases during the year in most items. The World Service receipts to date register around 85 per cent as compared with last year. They suggest a better showing by Conference."

Thomas B. Ashley, of Louisville District, reports:

"Just closing reports but not all in yet. Conversions, 580; accessions to the church, 700; adults baptized, 450; children, 110; Sunday-school enrollment (slight decrease), 6,500; ten evergreen schools added this year with a slight increase in average attendance. Epworth Leagues (Senior, 890; Intermediate, 182; Junior, 275; total, 1,327. Ladies' Aid Societies, 45, an increase of four; money raised by Ladies' Aid, $3,000. Salaries near last year's figures; World Service about last year's return; Conference benevolences will increase. Institute and leadership training enrollment, 240. Woman's Home Missionary contributions will show a slight increase. Aim: 'Youth Conservation in Western Kentucky and a better financial system in rural churches.'"

John L. Tilton, Barbourville District, speaking:

"Some reports on our district are not as bad as they might be. If some banks that were closed have caught up with the administration prosperity, a few reports will be greatly improved at the last minute. The closing of banks at Barbourville, Pineville, Cumberland, Corbin, and Harlan have given us financial paralysis in the Cumberland valley. Some men will do well to get to Conference for they have received less than $100 all told for the year's work. Only last-minute reports can be relied upon in our finances, for some checks may be returned. A few men only will be able to report one hundred per cent. Hard work and much of sacrifice could be written by the reports of this district this year."

Religious Education and Youth Program

From 1894 to 1932 we gained sixteen church schools according to the records in our Minutes. The schools of to-day are much improved over the earlier ones. Quite a few churches are offering opportunity for such teachers as desire to be better trained. Cecil D. Smith has rendered much valuable service to the Conference in this regard. We need to encourage the training of teachers everywhere in our schools. Two Epworth League Institutes were held this summer. The attendance at these camps was good and many enrolled for training. Not a few received certificates for work done, and will carry on the good work in their respective churches.

Union College

This institution of learning, under the leadership of Dr. J. O. Gross, is making a great contribution to the Southern Highlands. Young people are receiving such help here as enables them to be helpful in their home communities. The department of Bible, under Prof. Roy L. Ruth, at Union, is doing most effective work from the standpoint of the churches and religious work. A noticeable result is registered everywhere because of this department in the college.

Hospitals

Pikeville Hospital, under the able direction of S. K. Hunt, is doing a fine piece of work. We commend Kelly Hunt as a hospital man and await fuller report from him of his work. Deaconess Hospital has had a trying year. Dr. W. E. Cissna is to be encouraged and appreciated in the hard work and anxious effort he has given to the Deaconess Hospital.

World Service and Evangelism

A warm heart insures a ready hand and open purse. The heart of the church has grown cold and materialistic. We have too many who join in the report of the "Laymen" in "Re-thinking Missions." This truly might be called "Ignoring Missions." For as Dr. Kagawa says, "It is 'Missions Without a Cross.'" When the Cross is left out we have no place for Christ; and if no Christ there can be no missionary passion. To have missions there must be a warm burning passion for the souls of men everywhere. Evangelism and service are one. We cannot sell World Service for it is not a prized commodity in the marts of trade. Cheap evangelism whose ideal rests with the reporter may have missed the mark, but if I mistake not the man who has come to the Cross and there met Christ is saved to serve. Pentecost came in the midst of a depression. Peter and John on their way to the temple for prayer had to confess to a beggar that they had no money. The need was so great and funds so low that to go on the early fellowship sold their whole possessions, chose a common treasurer, and shared in what they had. Truly a financial depression, but a spiritual upheaval. The people cried, "Men and brethren, what shall we do?" Peter said: "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." The roll increased 3,000 and they all went to work. World Service has never suffered at the hands of Holy Spirit-filled lives. Far be it from me to criticize any person or method but when the church and her ministry have a baptism of the Holy Spirit and live in that realm themselves, World Service shall become a reality.

Temperance and Prohibition

In the present prohibition conflict more is at stake than the Eighteenth Amendment and the principles of prohibition. The very life of the church is in the balance. A virile church is unthinkable on its knees before the gods of this world. The amazing fact in all the states save Tennessee is the failure of moral leadership to command the moral loyalty of church members. They have not voted in large numbers for repeal. They have been supine in the face of moral struggle and permitted the wets to win by default. Fortunately there is still time to save Kentucky churches from the disgrace that has befallen the church in other states. Over five weeks will remain when this Conference adjourns to carry on the fight in Kentucky. The preachers of this Conference can do much to arouse public sentiment to the voting point. To "Keep Kentucky Dry" would be a moral victory that would thrill the nation and call a skulking electorate back to honor. Let us do our part.

Lay Activities

We have too few laymen with large interests in the whole church. Many fine men are doing heroic work in the local church but know little of the district, Conference, or world program. Our Conference once felt the strong arm of certain leading laymen of the church. Can it be that the present ministry has failed to arouse and interest such men? We need them and may God help us to properly arouse them to a larger place in the church. The good women have gone forward with their missionary and Ladies' Aid Societies in good shape, but the men have been allowed to remain too long at their last. God give us the power to appeal to you laymen to take a larger place in the whole program of the church.

The Rural Church

The problems of the farmer are many. He is like the work of the Kingdom in that he is the first to be affected by hardship and the last to share in the increase. For a number of years the country church has been a struggling institution. The march to the city was the first to take a toll. Then prosperity brought the city's attitude to the farm by auto and radio, and this brought about neglect of God and the church. In the midst of it all the crash came. Great hordes of people left the city on their march back to the farm. Many among those who are now upon the soil are mere squatters, for they plan to return to the city at the first assurance of an upturn in affairs. Rural churches are unkept, the personnel is discouraged, tramp preachers are creating division and discord. The problems of the country minister multiply hourly. Sometimes he has felt that it was of little use to go on trying to keep alive his denominational outpost. Methodism is not alone in this sea of soil and souls, for other denominations share in this situation in Kentucky. It is high time something was done about it. The church must not desert the countryside pulpit and ministry. Great denominations should launch a campaign to allocate the work and practice, as well as preach, the Christian religion.

In closing I wish to set forth certain matters and urge their consideration for adoption by this body.

First, I call attention to Paragraph 449, Section 1, of our Discipline, Conference Board of Home Missions and Church Extension. If this section of the Discipline is carried out in Kentucky it will be of great value and tend to work out a wiser distribution and investment of missionary funds.

Second, I refer you to Paragraph 361, Section 1, of the Discipline: "There shall be in each District of an Annual Conference a Board of Church Location." The work of this committee will greatly strengthen our position in some fields and prevent us from putting up some church building as a door to some family burying ground.

Finally, I would have you consider the advisability of forming a "Conference Boundary or Comity Committee." This commission would form a permanent organization to work with representatives of other denominations where the work of that body and our own might be wisely strengthened or discontinued. It is evident that we will never be able to render Christian service in some sections by virtue of the overlapping in work.

Bishop and Brethren of this Conference, I thank you for this patient hearing, both for my colleagues and myself. Weigh what has been said, take that of value and leave what you must. The work is done and we shall rejoice when it can be said by the "Great Shepherd of the Sheep" nothing against him.

Respectfully,

JOHN L. TILTON.

REPORT OF THE MERGER COMMISSION WITH THE CENTRAL GERMAN CONFERENCE

The meeting with the commission of the Central German Conference was held in Covington, Kentucky, January 27, 1931, resulting in the following agreements:

Concerning the Methodist Deaconess Hospital in Louisville, Kentucky, it was understood that the interest of the Central German Conference in the Louisville Deaconess Hospital be transferred to the Kentucky Conference, which shall assume the responsibility of maintaining the same.

The churches of the Central German Conference outside the city of Louisville involved in the merger with the Kentucky Conference shall remain the constituency of Bethesda Hospital, the regular Conference credit to be given for such support.

Under date of November 12, 1932, the Commission of the Kentucky Conference was asked to agree that the present constituency of the Methodist Children's Home, in Berea, Ohio, within the territory of the Kentucky Conference, be continued until 1940. This request was granted.

It was further agreed that "when the merger of the Central German and the Kentucky Conference takes place, all members and churches of the Central German Conference coming into the Kentucky Conference shall be received on an equality as to Annuity Claims and askings with the members of the Kentucky Conference, with the understanding that the Kentucky Conference shall receive its due share of Conference Claimants and Conference Claimants' Funds from the Central German Conference; and the proportionate amount of income from the Francesca Nast Gamble Fund, held in trust by the Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Cincinnati, Ohio, shall not immediately go to the Kentucky Annual Conference, but be divided among the retired men coming from the Central German Conference for a period of not exceeding five years; and all members of the Central German Conference transferring into the Kentucky Conference shall, by virtue of payments made by them personally to the endowment fund of the Central German Conference in years gone by, shall be received as members in good standing of the Preachers' Relief Association of the Kentucky Conference.

The funds now in possession of the Louisville City Missionary Society of the Central German Conference shall be transferred to the Kentucky Conference.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE

The one hundred and seventh session of the Kentucky Annual Conference, though short, was by no means lacking in interest and inspiration. The program covered every necessary aspect of our work. For instance, the composite report of the District Superintendents held the interest of the brethren to an unusual degree. As this report was ordered printed in the Minutes, we urge its careful and conscientious study.

This Conference will always be memorable for the reception of our German brethren. It was an hour of high inspiration and delightful fellowship. Coming to us with their genius for organization, sturdy Christian character, and loyalty to the noblest ideals of evangelical religion, we cannot but feel that our Conference has received new courage and confidence. We trust that these brethren will at once feel at home in our midst.

The presidency of our resident Bishop, H. Lester Smith, D.D., LL.D., was in every sense most gratifying. His executive ability, kindly spirit, legal grasp, robust common sense, and delicate humor—these and other qualities, tempered and mellowed by the influence of divine grace, commend him to us as an inspired and masterful leader. The increased number of laymen attending the Conference gives promise of a new and better day. If laymen and ministers will follow the counsel of our Bishop it will promote mutual good will, understanding, and co-operation.

We cordially endorse the plan of entertainment. The homes of Trinity and their friends of other denominations were opened wide to ministers and laymen. Special mention is due the ladies who served us such delicious and satisfying meals.

It is with genuine appreciation that we record our gratitude to the pastor, Rev. L. D. Rounds, for his untiring and efficient efforts in planning for the Conference. The various church choirs deserve a word of commendation for their excellent musical contributions.

The official visitors who addressed the Conference impressed all with their strong appeals, with the result that we feel a keener sense of responsibility for these various causes.

We gladly express our thanks to the following for various services rendered: the Coppin Shop for the use of two electrical refrigerators; St. Mark's Evangelical and the Seventh Day Adventist Churches for tables; Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, Cincinnati, Ohio, and Shinkle Church for use of hymn books; Dan Ruttle and Son, Danks Florist, Russell Methodist Episcopal Church, the Davenport family, Mrs. G. N. Jolly and her daughter, Grace, for flowers; T. M. Swindler for the use of folding chairs; Burroughs Sales office and Latonia Deposit Bank for adding machines; Radio-Twins for the installation of amplifiers in the recreation hall; all the newspapers which so kindly opened their columns to the proceedings of the Conference, and to our reporter, the Rev. W. T. Williams.

In conclusion, we note with thanksgiving to God the addition of more than two thousand souls to our membership, the largest gain in many years. This note of victory echoed throughout the Conference session. Let us not cease to pray that this spirit shall intensify and spread until a new Pentecost descends upon the entire church and Zion again puts on her beautiful garments.

F. E. ROSS,
W. E. CISSNA.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF AREA EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

At a meeting of the Area Executive Committee held May 17-18, 1933, at Columbus, Ohio, actions were taken for recommending to the annual conferences the following items:

COLLEGES

That we request the Board of Education to continue permission for designations as allowed last year, or that if the same amounts cannot be permitted we request the same ratio of amounts to the various colleges. For Union College, $5,000.

PIKEVILLE HOSPITAL

That we recommend the continuance of the plan hitherto in force for designations to the Pikeville Hospital with full World Service credit.

KENTUCKY MOUNTAIN WORK

That we approve the budget as submitted by Rev. H. M. Frakes, for $19,627, subject to approval by the Board of Managers of the Kentucky Work.

AREA BUDGET

Approve the following amounts to be raised by the churches of the area: Area Office, $3,800; indebtedness, $1,500; Summer School of Ministerial Training, $1,200. Total, $6,500, as against $7,500 for the past year.

AREA SECRETARY

Recommending the reappointment of the Rev. F. E. Whiteside as Area Secretary.

PROHIBITION

For the first time in the history of America party loyalty has been made to depend upon the surrender of moral principles. The members of the Kentucky Conference and the lay members whom they represent, in their political affiliations, are divided among the several political parties. We protest against the attempt of partisan leaders to enter the sanctuary of our moral and religious convictions and compel endorsement of governmental acts and principles that are repugnant to our every sense of right and that are contrary to the moral standards of the church. We denounce the open and utterly unwarranted acts of the Postmaster General, his masters and his agents in attempting to control the American conscience in the interest of a legalized liquor traffic. We call on the real Christian people of Kentucky to rebuke such attempted coercion by voting on November 7 against repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment and by influencing others to do the same.

J. L. FORT.

RESOLUTION

Adopted by the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, on the Needs of Kentucky's 720,000 School Children

WHEREAS, The extreme economic conditions facing public schools in many parts of the state have placed them in a desperate plight in the shortening of terms, the curtailing of necessary services and the reduction of teachers' salaries to new "lows"; the schools have been called upon to bear the brunt of the retrenchment program and state support of public schools has declined more than one-third within two years, with a probability of still further decline; and

WHEREAS, It is the obligation of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, for its own sake and that of its children, to provide adequate educational opportunities for them regardless of where they may reside or the social and economic status of their parents; and to make innocent children and ambitious young men and women the victims of an economic situation not of their own making is social dishonesty, and a repudiation of our democratic principles; and

WHEREAS, The Kentucky Educational Commission, after a comprehensive survey of the school system, has offered recommendations looking toward a re-organization of the school system for the good of the children and in the interests of economy and efficiency, be it therefore,

Resolved, That the 720,000 school children in Kentucky are entitled to a "square deal," and that every child in the state should have the opportunity to attend school for the standard length of term, under a competent and well-trained teacher, and in a building adequately equipped and constructed to protect the moral and physical welfare of the child; and be it further

Resolved, That the Kentucky Conference, with a membership of 22,000, hereby calls upon the General Assembly to give careful consideration to the report of the Educational Commission, and to enact into law the school code proposed for the benefit of the child and not of any selfish interests.

KENTUCKY CONFERENCE,
METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

WORLD SERVICE AND MISSIONARY SUNDAY

October 15, 1933

The distressing situation in the treasuries of all our Boards is a reflection of the chaos of the present day in practically every department of national and international life. Out of this chaos the church ought to be the first to emerge.

Without being foolishly optimistic, God's people ought to "sing a new song, even praise to the Most High," and in firmness of faith march to the front of the recovery procession where God's people belong.

The church has available material resources with which to stop the retreat and accomplish a glorious advance to new world victories.

October 15 has been set as Missionary Sunday by the leaders of our World Service hosts. It should be made a day of victory in every charge of the Kentucky Conference. To accomplish this every preacher must go from this Conference with shining face, "laugh at impossibilities, and cry 'It shall be done.'"

We suggest some things that can be done in every Kentucky Conference charge to make October 15 a real Missionary Day.

1. Let each pastor appoint a real contact committee to visit every family in the church the week previous to the fifteenth, announce the full program of Missionary Day, pledge the largest possible attendance at all missionary-day services, and distribute the available missionary leaflets with an intelligent exhortation that they be read and prayed about before Sunday the fifteenth.

2. Let each pastor, with his official board, set a "goal of advance" to be reached on October 15, and determinedly work to the accomplishment of that goal. Be sure to make this a "goal of advance" and not merely holding our own.

3. Let each pastor carefully prepare and enthusiastically preach a missionary sermon full of faith, full of information, full of enthusiasm, and absolutely minus of depression and hard-luck stories.

4. Carry out the best possible missionary program in the Sunday school, the Epworth League, and any other services that may be held on that day, with the prayer meeting of the previous week a missionary prayer meeting.

5. Let every pastor who has not already done so order a liberal supply of the two leaflets and the two kinds of special offering envelopes and use them to the limit.

6. Finally, to repeat, make adequate preparation for a day of victory. The methods suggested here do not involve the outlay of a single dollar in expense. They do involve faith in God who has said, "Go, and lo I am with you." They do involve careful attention to details and the wearing out of some shoe leather on the part of the pastor and his committee of contact. We can do it if we will. We can do it and we will.

MORAL REFORMS

The sunset of another Annual Conference brings us to the moments when we pause to hear the church speak on moral, reforms, and to make her pronouncements on the practices which threaten the sanctity and safety of our homes and, native land.

We are not in a battle singlehanded, but those age-old allies of moral righteousness and political integrity continue to reach hands across the widening gulf of moral decay to be counted in the vanguard where always the Women's Christian Temperance Union, the Anti-Saloon League of America, the Lord's Day Alliance, the World Peace organizations, and the few remaining statesmen who carry in their bosoms untarnished consciences and unimpeachable honor together with the militant and praying forces of the church of the conquering Galilean are taking the challenging task as seriously as they ever have in any crisis. Doubtless when we view the array of enemies to our sacred institutions we all feel appalled and are tempted to relent, exclaiming: "What's the use"? but in God's name we shall not give up. Without question a mob psychology has driven state after state to repudiate a once noble stand on temperance and prohibition and we are forced to meet it in fearful combat again as we did more than a decade ago.

The caption, "God In This Crisis," could be placed over the words of Habakkuk, the prophet: "Write the vision and make it plain . . . that he may run that readeth it. Woe to him that buildeth a town by blood, and stablisheth a city with iniquity! Woe to him that giveth his neighbor drink, that putteth his bottle to him and maketh him drunken also." We should not only "write the vision" but as Doctor Spurgeon said, "write is certainly, plainly, practically, and permanently; engrave it for perpetuity," that we are cursed if we build and maintain a nation by blood.

The "Verdict of the Ages" condemns a traffic that some would-be Christians now condone. The inscription in an early Egyptian tomb reads: "His earthly tenement was shattered by beer and wine, and his spirit departed before it was called for." Solomon, 1000 B. C., said, "At last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder." Buddha, 550 B. C., said, "Drink not liquors that intoxicate and disturb the reason." Xenophon, 300 B. C., said, "Temperance means, first, moderation in healthful indulgence, and, secondly, abstinence from things dangerous, as the use of intoxicating wines." Pliny the Elder, 79 A. D., said, "There is nothing about which we put ourselves to more trouble than wine, as if nature hath not given us the most salubrious drink with which all other animals are satisfied." Chaucer, 1340, said, "Character and shame depart when wine comes in." Shakespeare, 1600, said, "Oh thou invisible spirit of wine, if thou hast no name to be known by, let us call thee devil." Abraham Lincoln, 1842, said, "Liquor might have defenders, but no defense. Whether or not the world would be vastly benefited by a total and final banishment from it of all intoxicating drinks, seem to me not an open question." Gladstone, the British statesman, 1898, said, "The ravages of drink are greater than those of war, pestilence, and famine combined." Cardinal Gibbons, in 1915, said, "The great curse of the laboring man is intemperance. It has brought more desolation to the wage earner than strikes, or war, or sickness, or death. It has caused little children to be hungry and cold and to grow up among evil associations. It has broken up more homes and wrecked more lives than any other cause."

M. Georges Clemenceau, 1920, said, "It is definitely settled that alcohol is a poison; a poison destructive of human energy and, for this reason, of society as a whole." Sir Wilfred Grenfell, in 1928, said, "Alcohol has wrecked more lives, starved more little children, murdered more women than any other single factor." Doctor Wm. S. Abernathy, of Calvary Baptist Church, Washington, in the recent National Prohibition Conference, described a poor drunken man who staggered to the front of that great church at the close of an evening sermon, fell a weeping penitent at the front pew, and after repeated attempts to conquer, was conquered by drink and after two years' struggle hung himself in a Washington jail.

Shall not the members of this Conference pledge a new loyalty to return to their charges and do their very best to get out as large a vote as possible even though they are charged with preaching politics?

The inroads made on every sacred institution of our American civilization is aided by the moving-picture personnel and industry in a mighty way. Every day Hollywood records a great number of marriages and divorces until tandem ploygamy in some of the outstanding families of the nation is not only permitted, but is received with a "jovial acceptance." With the movies training the children and youth more effectively than the church and church school with regard to equipment and persistency, we ought to arouse our people to be on guard against this moral decay and combat the evil tendencies that ruin homes. The movie business has joined hands with the advocates for repeal and are thus in a "guilty complicity to a devilish business."

We earnestly urge our ministry and laity to help in the fight for a higher moral standard in every community and to try and lead the church to higher standards for Christian living. No matter how great the influence for evil, our God is able to deliver.

Memoirs

WILLIAM HENRY DAVENPORT

Rev. William Henry Davenport was born in Holston, Washington County, Virginia, July 20, 1860, and died at his home in Ludlow, Kentucky, March 7, 1933. He was united in marriage to Sophia Peery, July 18, 1883. To this union were born seven children of which six survive him. After the death of his first wife he married Addie Webb, August 11, 1897. To this union five children were born, all of whom survive.

W. H. Davenport

From a very early age his ambition was to become a minister of the gospel. In early life he followed the carpenter's trade and preached as a local minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1895, through the influence of Rev. H. J. Ramey, then presiding elder of the Ashland District, he was admitted to the Kentucky Conference. He was active from that time until he retired in 1925. Among the charges he served were: Louisa, Advance, Ashland (Second Church), Greenup, East Maysville, Covington (Main Street), and Ludlow. He also was for six years District Superintendent of Ashland District. He was ordained Elder September, 1899, by Bishop FitzGerald, at Newport, Kentucky.

Brother Davenport preached a positive gospel in a pleasing manner that won his hearers. He was a good pastor, a kindly friend, and loved and honored by all who knew him. He was stricken at the close of a communion service where he assisted his pastor and quietly passed away on the following Tuesday with all his family present. The funeral was conducted by his pastor, J. M. Literal. District Superintendent Dr. E. P. Hall preached the sermon. Fourteen brother-ministers were present and sang. He was laid to rest in beautiful Highland Cemetery, Covington, Kentucky.

J. M. LITERAL.

V. E. FRYMAN

The Rev. V. E. Fryman was born June 19, 1886, in Nicholas County, near Bellville, Kentucky. He was converted very early in life and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and engaged in its work. Shortly after his conversion he heard the call of God to the ministry and later entered Asbury College, where he spent some time in preparation for that work. He served the Grant County charge as a supply, 1916-1917, under the superintendency of the writer. The fall of 1917 he united with our Conference and served the following charges and churches: Salt Lick, Greenup, Ashland (Second Church), Louisa, and Russell.

Brother Fryman was a faithful pastor and a good preacher. He was greatly loved by all the people of all the churches that he served. The longer he stayed the better they loved him. He was on the firing line, engaged in a union revival meeting in Russell where he, the Southern Methodist pastor, and the pastor of the Christian Church were working together when he became sick. He was taken to the hospital, operated on for appendicitis, but lived only a few days. He died in the full triumph of a living faith, exhorting every one who came in to see him to live right and meet him in heaven. He passed to the great eternal world February 3, 1933.

He was born of Methodist parents and brought up in a spiritual atmosphere. He attended a Sunday school and church made up of old-time shouting Methodists. He was taught from infancy to love the Lord and be religious. He was always a good boy and became one of the cleanest men that God ever made.

V. E. Fryman

November 22, 1905, he was married to Miss Mabel Waggoner, of Barterville, Nicholas County, Kentucky. He was not a minister at that time, but if he had been he could not have selected a better preacher's wife. They lived and loved and worked as one. Their love for and devotion to each other was beautiful beyond comparison.

One child, a daughter, was born to this union. We know that she and Mrs. Fryman are very lonely and full of grief because of their great loss in the death of Brother Fryman. But how fortunate they are to have each other to live for and in sweet anticipation of meeting him and living with him in God's heaven throughout all eternity.

The funeral services were held in our church at Russell, and at the old Mount Pleasant Methodist Episcopal Church, South, where he was laid to rest surrounded by the bodies and dust of relatives and loved ones gone on before. Dr. D. C. Johnson, assisted by some of the brethren of the district, was in charge of the service at Russell, and the writer, assisted by several of the brethren of the Conference, was in charge at Mount Pleasant.

"The pains of death are past,
Labor and sorrow cease;
And, life's long warfare closed at last,
His soul is found in peace.
Soldier of Christ, well done!
Praise be thy new employ;
And while eternal ages run,
Rest in thy Saviour's joy."

E. R. OVERLEY.

MRS. ISAIAH CLINE

Agnes Bertram Cline

Mrs. Agnes Bertram Cline was born near Valley, in Lewis County, Kentucky, November 16, 1861. She was a daughter of the late Peter and Isabel Bertram. The parents were members of the Presbyterian Church. Agnes very naturally grew in that church. September 14, 1891, she was married to the Rev. Isaiah Cline, the Rev. T. B. Stratton officiating. Later her membership was transferred, by certificate, to the Methodist Church. Sister Cline is survived by two daughters: Mrs. Isabelle Tucker, of Breckenridge County, and Mrs. Bess Diller, of Ashland, Kentucky, and two sons, Thomas E. and Bertram Cline, both of whom reside in Augusta, Kentucky. The death of Sister Cline occurred November 14, and the burial on the anniversary of her birth. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. H. G. Murrell, assisted by the Rev. A. H. Davis. After the funeral the remains were placed beside those of Brother Cline in Mount Zion Cemetery.

T. B. STRATTON.

MRS. WILLIAM CRAIN

Mrs. William Crain was a true yokefellow of an itinerant minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Together with her husband they served the most difficult appointments of the Conference; before the days of the telephone, the automobile, and all the other necessities of this day, they went forth heroically to build the Kingdom for our day of ease.

The writer well remembers his appointment. Brother and Sister Crain were members of one of the many churches of that circuit. Days of disappointments came, hardships were endured, the Crains were there to ease the burdens and speak words of encouragement, backing it all up with their beautiful prayers.

She was of the salt of the earth. Her duties were done uncomplainingly. She loved Jesus and his work; she hath done what she could. Her dear devoted husband, one of our honored retired men, remains behind to await the summons of promotion to be with her in the Glory Land.

O. W. ROBINSON.

Roll of Our Honored Dead.

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."—Rev. xiv, 13.

The first Conference in Kentucky was held in 1790; but the work in Kentucky was not set apart as the Kentucky Conference till 1821. Meanwhile, death was claiming its own among the preachers. Henry Birchett died in 1794; Francis Acuff, in 1795; Lewis Hunt, in 1801; Learner Blackman, in 1815. The roll since that time is, approximately, as follows:

COURSES OF STUDY

BOARD OF MINISTERIAL TRAINING

Officers of the Board

JOHN OWEN GROSS, Chairman, Barbourville, Kentucky.
F. H. LARRABEE, Vice-Chairman, Wilmore, Kentucky.
H. C. SIMS, Registrar, 231 Farley Street, Paducah, Kentucky.

DIRECTIONS FOR STUDENTS AND EXAMINERS

1. The recommendation of the Discipline (201) to establish a midyear school for undergraduates has been met by the Conferences of the Cincinnati Area by establishing a Summer School of Theology at Delaware, Ohio, convening during the month of June each year. All undergraduates, including Accepted Supply Pastors, are required to attend this Summer School of Theology and to take all their examinations there, except those in attendance at one of our schools. Classes are formed in all studies on which examinations are required in the four years of the Conference course, both for Traveling and Local Preachers.

2. No candidate shall be received on trial in an Annual Conference until he shall have met the requirements for admission to college as recognized by the University Senate. Beginning with the Fall Conferences of 1934, one full year of college work shall be required as condition for reception on trial, and beginning with the Fall Conferences of 1936 the requirement shall be two years of college work in an approved institution. (Paragraph 199, Section 2). In addition to the foregoing the Kentucky Conference will not receive an applicant who has passed the age of forty or who does not have an appointment to a charge in the Conference.

3. All required written work in the books to be studied must be completed and in the hands of the Registrar before the opening date of the School of Theology. No student will be permitted to enroll in the school who has not completed this written work before the opening day and had same graded by Conference Examiner. Grade on work must be sent by him to Registrar and be recorded by that time.

4. No examination will be given at the Annual Conference to the men in the four-year course of study, except by special permission of the Conference on the recommendation of the Board of Examiners, and that only on account of sickness or some other urgent cause.

5. All written work on the collateral subjects must be in the hands of the Examiners fifteen days before the Conference opens. No written work will be accepted after the session opens, and students who fail to comply with this rule will be conditioned on the subjects, unless a satisfactory reason is presented.

6. All examinations, including "required written work" and sermons, shall be carefully written with pen or typewriter, on letter-size typewriter paper, on one side of the paper only. Each paper shall be endorsed with the name, residence, and Conference class of the student, also the name of the study and the name of the instructor. Postage for the return of papers shall be sent by students to the Examiners.

7. Students wishing to substitute work done in one of our schools for the studies in the Conference course shall present their credits to the Registrar. (See Paragraph 200.)

8. When a preacher in full connection fails to be advanced in his work in the Conference course of study for a given year, said year shall not be counted as a year of effective service unless he is in attendance upon an approved school or is excused by a two-thirds vote of his Conference upon the recommendation of the Board of Examiners. (Paragraph 199, Section 5.)

9. No candidate shall be advanced in his studies who is conditioned in more than one book upon which examination is required nor in more than two books in the collateral studies. Any member on trial who does not complete the first two years of the Course of Study within four years shall be discontinued, and any full member who fails to complete the entire four years of the Course of Study within eight years shall be located, unless, in either case, extension of time shall be recommended by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Ministerial Training and authorized by a two-thirds vote of the Annual Conference. In no case shall a person have a larger total than ten years in the Course of Study, and any person failing to complete the Course within this ten-year period shall not be permitted to join a Conference again on trial. This section, however, shall not apply for the period of time in which the candidates are carrying regular work in residence in an approved theological seminary. (Paragraph 199, Section 6.)

10. Candidates for admission on trial may receive instruction at the Summer School of Theology and take the examinations there, but such an arrangement shall not deprive any candidate for admission on trial from being examined at the seat and time of the Annual Conference. Candidates for admission on trial who were unable to attend the School of Theology are required to take such examinations at seat of Annual Conference on day before the Conference convenes.

11. The Board of Examiners shall convene at the seat and time of the Annual Conference the day before the session opens, to review and complete the work of the year and arrange for the work of the year to come. (Paragraph 201, Section 6.)

12. Accepted Supply Pastors (see Paragraphs 171, 172) who are giving their full time to pastoral work under the District Superintendents shall be required to take the Conference Course of Study or the Local Preachers' Course of Study, year by year, under the Annual Conference Board of Ministerial Training, and while pursuing their studies shall attend the sessions of the Summer Schools for Ministerial Training where such schools are provided. These rules shall apply to all Supply Pastors under forty years of age and likewise to all whose appointments began subsequent to the Spring of 1920. Any Accepted Supply Pastor who fails to observe the requirements of this section, or who shall fail to complete two years of the Course of Study within four years and the entire Course within eight years, shall not be employed by a District Superintendent. (Paragraph 201, Section 7.)

CONFERENCE STUDIES FOR TRAVELING PREACHERS AND ACCEPTED SUPPLY PASTORS

As Prescribed by the Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, 1932, ¶202

Special attention is called to the "Directions and Helps" as listed in the Courses of Study for Traveling Preachers, and for Local Preachers. For each subject in these courses there is a separate pamphlet giving the student the necessary directions for his work and help in his study. They indicate also the written work which must be done in connection with each subject, including the "Collateral Reading and Study." This written work is a part of the required course equally with any of the books to be studied. These pamphlets are bound together in one volume for each year listed as the "Directions and Helps."

IF THERE was ever a time when every one should contend for the faith and live it, IT'S NOW. ¶ Keep your heart pure, your hands clean, go about doing good especially to those who can't repay, and tell God you are going to do your part according to the Gospel.

GEORGE H. FRANK,

Maysville's Foremost Clothiers.

SIXTY YEARS of splendid history lies behind. What of the future? It remains for Kentucky Methodism to answer. Few have been the ministers of the Kentucky Conference but have at some time attended RUGGLES. They have made it one of the best-loved spots in Kentucky Methodism. Ruggles has always furnished the best preaching, the best teaching and the finest spirit of Christian fellowship. Eternity only will reveal the results of the years of service rendered by Ruggles to the Saviour's work.
